

England

Kenya

continent
Europe

continent
Africa

capital city
London

capital city
Nairobi

River Thames

Nairobi River

location
North West Europe

location
East Africa

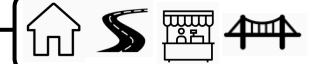

climate
mild & warm

climate Kenya's coast is tropical
The city of Nairobi is temperate continent  Huge areas of land with many countries in England is found in the continent of Europe Kenya is found in the continent of Africa country  A place with its own government. England, Northern Ireland, Scotland and Wales are countries of the United Kingdom. Kenya has its own government city  A very large town with airports, banks, railway stations, motorways and other important buildings - museums, churches and cathedrals human feature  Things that have been built by humans, like houses, roads, bridges and shops physical feature  Things that are natural, like forests, rivers and mountains landmark  A standout feature in the landscape, like London's Big Ben or Nairobi's Times Tower. Can also be a physical feature - grasslands tropical hot and rainy temperate

not too hot or too cold
